EMPLOYER NEWS

Hello from Syndhia and Suzanne in Employer and Alumni Relations! Interested in consulting? We have had great conversations with major consulting firms McKinsey and BCG this past week, which have Spring / Summer recruiting programs specifically for Ph.D. and post-doc candidates.

McKinsey:
Did you know that McKinsey & Company, a global management consulting firm, has been hiring advanced professional degree (APD) candidates for over 20 years? McKinsey’s Summer Insight Programs offer a 3-day, insider’s look into management consulting that will also serve as a pipeline for full-time offers for accepted candidates. Visit the program application site for further details, and register here for their on-campus info session at Faculty House on March 30th to express your interest & find out more about the programs. The deadline to apply for all tracks is April 10th. For information on further opportunities for APD candidates, please visit their website.

Please note: the ideal candidates will be interested in working in the Asia Pacific region, and fluent in English as well as one of the required languages OR be pursuing an APD in Engineering / Tech.

The Boston Consulting Group (BCG):
Are you a PhD, JD, or MD student or post-doc with an interest in a business career? If so, we hope you’ll join us on March 21st at the Columbia BCG Connection Event to learn about consulting career opportunities for ADCs, including the Bridge to BCG workshop and full-time positions for 2016.

BCG Connection Event
What: A presentation about BCG, followed by a networking reception
Where: Faculty House at 64 Morningside Drive, New York, NY
When: Monday, March 21 at 7:00 PM
Who: All advanced degree candidates (ADCs) – MD, JD, PhD students and post-docs
Why: Learn more about our firm and the work we do. Meet BCGers from various offices, and at different levels, from Partners to recent hires, to hear about their experiences and ask them questions!

Please register for this event by clicking here.
