EMPLOYER NEWS

Hello from Kate on the Employer and Alumni Relations team! This week we spoke to a great startup, Button. They are looking to recruit students for their Software Engineering Internship Program, posted in LionSHARE (Job ID: 210126). There are many Columbia alumni at Button, and they are excited to have Columbia students as interns as well. The internship program provides a mentor relationship for the interns and allows the interns to build and design their own projects. If you are interested in a start-up culture work environment that utilizes your computer science knowledge, this is an exciting opportunity!

CAREER TIP OF THE WEEK

Did you attend CCE's Startup Career Fair on Friday? Make plans to follow up directly with the employers that you met! If you want to submit applications to any of these companies, consider having your resume and cover letter reviewed by a CCE counselor.
