Greetings from the Graduate Student Career Development team and all at CCE! Winter break is almost here. We know that you worked hard this fall, so now it’s time for you to enjoy the city or travel for some holiday fun with friends and family. It’s also a great time to take some steps in your job search. Remember, CCE is open during winter break and career counselors are available for in-person, phone or Skype appointments. Schedule a 30-minute session by calling 212-854-5609.

Hello from the entire Employer and Alumni Relations team! Since you won’t hear from us again for a few weeks, we wanted to share a few of the great full time and internship opportunities from companies like New York Times, Novartis, SpaceX, Kepler Cannon and the National Gallery of Art that are live in LionSHARE right now. Check them out here and search by industry to find out more!

Over the break, take the opportunity to identify your skills, interests, values, and personality traits through informal career assessments in our Career Planning Guide. For those who are interested in formal guided exploration, please visit our Career Assessment Tools page on the MBTI and the Strong Interest Inventory.

Happy Holidays from CCE!
