CCE EMPLOYER NEWS FOR MASTER’S STUDENTS

Hi from Syndhia on the Employer and Alumni relations team. Last week, I spoke with Loadsmart, a small startup based in Soho that works in the technology logistics space. The organization has an opening on their team, and have posted a Data Scientist position in LionSHARE. The best candidate for this opportunity will have core skills in statistics and machine learning, and ideally working on their Masters or PhD in that space. Check them out, and keep an eye out for more opportunities to connect with them on campus!
