Greetings from the Graduate Student Career Development team and all at CCE! We have two great events just for PhD students this Thursday. First, we have an interactive workshop designed to help PhD students from all disciplines prepare for and execute a non-academic job search, and then we have a panel in the evening focused on the publishing industry. Click below to view additional details and to register.

- Career Exploration Workshop for PhDs on Nov. 3 from 12-2p.m. - This is an opportunity to reflect on your interests, values, skills and personality traits, connect these to careers, and complete an Individual Development Plan. Lunch will be served.

- Career Pathways Panel for PhDs: Non-academic/Academic Publishing on Nov. 3 from 5:30-7p.m. - Join CCE and the Columbia Alumni Association as we welcome Drs. Eric I. Schwartz and Kate Gao. They will share their experiences navigating a job search in the publishing industry and discuss their current roles. Light dinner will be served.

CCE EMPLOYER NEWS

Hello! This is Courtney from the Employer Relations Team. Last week, I had the opportunity to speak with a team member at SPIBER! SPIBER is ‘the leading biomaterials company in the world and has released the prototype of the worlds first synthetic spider silk-based apparel ‘Moon Parka’. Located in Japan, Spiber is growing quickly and are looking for people committed to maximizing their positive impact in the world! Spiber is currently seeking to hire advanced degree students focused on Chemical, Biological Engineering, Materials and Mechanical Engineering and other related majors.
Japanese language skills are not required. Check out their website to view current openings.

TIP OF THE WEEK

Make saying thank you a priority! Whether you’ve just finished an interview for a job/internship or had a great conversation over coffee with a contact, be sure to express your gratitude for the time they took to meet with you. Click here to find out how to write an awesome thank you letter.
