EMPLOYER NEWS FOR MASTER’S STUDENTS

Hello! This is Courtney from CCE's Employer and Alumni Relations team. Last week, members of our team had a great conversation with the leadership team for the Advertising Sales/Strategy group at NBC Universal. They are eager to connect with advanced degree candidates at Columbia for a few currently open roles on their team. Qualifications for the role include a particular skill set in data analytics and data sciences. An interest in media planning and advertising would be a plus! View a currently posted position with the team here. Look for representatives of this NBC Universal team at the Graduate Student Career Fair and other campus activities this fall.
