EMPLOYER NEWS

Hi from Syndhia on the Employer & Alumni Relations Team! Recently we spoke with Refinery29, a digital publishing website based in New York, but growing with offices in Los Angeles, most recently in London. A fun fact we learned about this organization is that one of the co-founders for this website is a Columbia alum who majored in history! We are very excited to continue working with this organization, and currently have two engineering positions posted on LionSHARE, a Summer Internship (Job ID: 213627) and Senior Software Engineer (Job ID: 213630). Check out their careers page to see more of their opportunities!
