THIS WEEK AT CCE

This is Rebecca at CCE wishing you a Happy Engineering Week! We love working with Engineering students and building career resources for you like our Engineering Industry pages and Engineering Major Tip sheets, with information on career paths, career resources, and alumni. Speaking of alumni, hear from three – from Arcadis, ExxonMobil and Kulite Semiconductor Products – on the panel at this Tuesday’s Engineering Industry Showcase, brought to you by CCE, SWE, and NSBE.

CCE EMPLOYER NEWS

Hello! Courtney from the Employer and Alumni Relations Team excited to tell you about our recent conversation with the recruiting team at Warner Brothers! There are currently internship positions posted across multiple divisions within the company including publicity, marketing, finance, legal and others! Most opportunities are located in Burbank, CA. Warner Brothers is looking for candidates with strong communication, team work and organization skills with an interest in the entertainment industry. Does this sound like you? Check these opportunities out today!

TIP OF THE WEEK

Did you attend our Spring Career Fair on Friday? Don't forget to follow up with the employers you met if you haven't already. Click here for a few tips on the best way to go about it.

CCE EVENTS & PROGRAMS

Site Visit: New York Historical Society - Friday, Feb. 24
Interested in "Making History Matter"? Then join CCE for a site visit to the New-York Historical Society this coming Friday. N-YHS offers full- and part-time internships for students at the college and graduate levels in both museum and library divisions. Register in LionSHARE.
CCE in Residence: Summer Planning and Resources for First Years - Friday, Feb. 24
Hunting for a summer opportunity? Looking to learn more about career development? At this workshop, CCE and upperclassmen will share strategies and CCE-specific resources for finding jobs, internships, and other summer opportunities as a first-year student.

Connect with an Alumni Mentor this Summer
Get a head-start on your professional development by joining one of our three summer mentorship programs. Students with a STEM internship can sign up for STEP, while students interning abroad can participate in CU GO. Working or living in LA, DC, Boston, or San Francisco this summer? Then SCCEN is your scene, whether you have an internship or not. Space is limited – sign up now!
