EMPLOYER NEWS

Hello from Syndhia in Employer Relations! A few years ago we brought a group of students on a site visit to Sotheby’s to learn more about its 12 month rotational training programme. The students were all very impressed by both the programme and the working environment. This visit also solidified Sotheby’s interest in Columbia students and they will be on campus to interview soon! Check out Sotheby’s Training Programme (LionSHARE Schedule ID: 5140), which is open to all majors and anyone eligible to work in the UK or US.

CAREER TIP OF THE WEEK

Are you an international student? Whether you’re hoping to secure a part time job on campus, an internship off campus, or a full time job after graduation, it is essential that you fully understand your eligibility to work under your student visa. Gain an understanding of the US job search at the upcoming Getting Ready for the US Job Search: Social Norms and Visa Issues workshop with CCE and ISSO on Oct. 28 and check our International Student Resource page.

CCE EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

Connect with GS alumni at the GS Dinner and Discussion: Careers in Film - Oct. 28
Meet alumni working in the Film industry at this informal, intimate panel discussion. Alumni will answer questions and share their professional experiences and industry insights. This event is only open to General Studies students and alumni. Registration is required.

Upcoming CCE Site Visits - Oct. 30 and Nov. 6
Ever wondered what it would be like to work at your favorite company? CCE’s Site Visit Program provides an interactive way to learn about careers with insider views into the work and culture of a variety of organizations and industries. Register for one of our exciting Site Visits coming up:
Great news! Some deadlines for our spring internship programs have been extended so if working on your application materials didn’t get checked off your to-do list, there is still time to apply until Sunday, November 1st. Check out the opportunities still available here and apply through LionSHARE.
