Greetings from the Graduate Student Career Development team and all at CCE! As you prepare for the start of the Spring Semester, we want to remind you of some of the online career resources available to you through our office.

- Master's Student Timeline – Guide to planning your time as a graduate student.
- Career Planning Guide 2016-2017 – Covers everything from resumes and CVs to interviewing and networking.
- LionSHARE – CCE’s online recruiting system with job postings and employer information.
- Going Global – Learn about transnational opportunities, international hiring practices, and city-specific employment information.
- UniWorld – Two directories highlighting American firms operating abroad as well as foreign firms operating in the US.
- Vault – Provides insider company information, advice, and career management services.
- Wetfeet – Access to in-depth company research on companies, careers, and industries.

For additional career resources for Master's students, visit our website or stop by and visit us in East Campus.

CCE EMPLOYER NEWS FOR MASTER'S STUDENTS

Happy New Year from the entire Employer and Alumni Relations team! We hope that you are enjoying a restful (but fun) holiday break. As we all gear up for a new semester, we wanted to again highlight a few of the great opportunities that have been posted in LionSHARE since you last heard from us. For this week’s newsletter, we are focusing specifically on internships from companies like Nike, Blue Apron, The Metropolitan Museum of Art and Tesla Motors that are expiring over the next few weeks. Check them out here and search by industry to find out more!

TIP OF THE WEEK

Self-assessment is the first step in finding a career that is the best fit for you. Start by reflecting on your interests, values, skills and personality traits through informal career assessments in our Career Planning Guide.
