My Columbia Human Rights degree prepares me to...

- Analyze issues related to justice and equality through a human rights lens
- Assess and respond to emerging technological, sociocultural, economic, and political issues
- Debate key human rights issues, norms, laws, and policies
- Conduct comparative research
- Organize, interpret, and evaluate empirical data
- Communicate orally and in writing, to different audiences
- Collaborate on diverse teams
- Act ethically as an advocate for human rights issues
- Apply an international perspective to decision-making
