As a Columbia Visual Arts major, I can...

- Rigorously critique works of art, thinking critically and creatively
- Analyze works of art in their aesthetic, historical, and sociopolitical contexts
- Command an understanding of ongoing dialogues within contemporary art
- Develop creative approaches to otherwise conventional problems
- Realize concepts in visual or multimodal form
- Deliver independent work with minimal supervision
- Articulate the process and intention behind a project
- Create a coherent body of artistic work
- Organize materials with attention to detail
- Write clear, engaging, and persuasive texts for different audiences
