GRAD SCHOOL

My Columbia Music degree prepares me to...

- Analyze music and texts using multiple methods
- Synthesize and present complex analytical observations about contemporary musical trends in research, scholarship, and composition
- Transmit and create media using audiovisual media platforms
- Use music notation software and other technology effectively and creatively
- Write clear, organized, and persuasive texts
- Read, interpret, and critique musical performances, improvisations, compositions, and commentaries
- Situate musical pieces or repertoires within the traditions from which they derive
- Conduct research in libraries, archives, private collections, and online
- Evaluate sources and the quality of information
- Carefully cite and document sources
